

Mathematics

- Addition
- subtraction
- Multiplication
- Division

Art

- Painting winter themed pictures using ideas from famous artists.
- Experiment with watercolours and colour mixing.
- Creating own Christmas wrapping paper using printing techniques - low relief string on card printing.
- Use more than 1 colour when printing.
- Experiment with repeated patterns and rotation when printing.
- Sew simple stitches in embroidery.

PE

- Use running, jumping, throwing and catching in isolation and in combination.
- Play competitive games
- Apply basic principles suitable for attacking and defending.

English

- Understanding the 4 types of sentences.
- Creating direct speech and using commas.
- Organising writing into paragraphs.
- Understanding and creating expanded noun phrases for descriptive writing.
- Creating winter themed poetry.

Music

- Play an untuned instrument - djembe drums

RE

- Understand how Hindus celebrate Diwali
- Explore Christmas symbols
- Explain how Diwali might bring a sense of belonging to Hindus.
- Explore what Christmas means to me.

Computing

- Connecting computers - understanding how digital devices work and can connect to each other e.g. wireless access and networks.

Science

Light

- Know that we need light to see
- Understand reflective surfaces
- Understanding shadows
- Know that the light from the sun can be dangerous

Geography

- Use maps, atlases and globes to locate countries.
- Locate and identify the UK on a world map, including the capital cities.
- Understand physical and human geography.

French

- Greetings
- What's your name?
- France and Paris
- Classroom phrases
- Pronunciation
- Paris' landmarks
- UK and capital cities
- Counting 1-6
- Simple sentences using it is/ this is/ yes / no.

Yule

Australasia Class

Key Texts:

- A selection of poetry - including "I am winter", "Jack Frost" and "The Snow Queen".

RSHE

- Dealing with strong emotions
- Self image, mental health and well-being
- Online relationships and the media
- Online content and critical thinking
- Staying safe online.